

The University of Texas at Austin
Domestic Violence Clinic
School of Law

LEGAL INFORMATION RESOURCES

1. TexasLawHelp.org The Texas Supreme Court and the Texas Access to Justice Commission worked together to create forms and instructions for divorces and custody matters that includes videos, instructions, and forms. This information can help you to understand the divorce process and know what to expect.
2. The Travis County Law Library Offers information about the steps in a divorce and forms that you can use by phone, email, or live chat. Sign up for a Case Review with a law librarian.
3. The Pro Se Divorce Handbook Written by the State Bar of Texas and the Texas Young Lawyers Association. This information can support you to pursue the divorce process on your own or can help you to understand the divorce process and know what to expect from your process.
4. The Texas State Law Library helps with researching legal information and forms by phone, email, and live chat. The lawyer-librarians can answer quite a lot of questions!