CLASS INFORMATION FOR FALL 2018
INTERNERSHIP PROGRAM (U.S. ATTORNEY)

Semester: Fall 2018 - Spring 2019

☐ Course ID: 297P ☐ Credit Hours: 2 per semester

No class meeting information is available for this class. Students will arrange their work schedules with their supervisors. They are expected to work about 10 hours per week during each long semester.

Exams: None

Registration Information:
This course is restricted to upper class students only. U.S. Attorney Internship – APPLICATION REQUIRED. Application and/or instructions on how to apply for this internship can be accessed on the web:
http://law.utexas.edu/internships/application-information/u-s-attorney-internship/

 This course meets the Professional Skills requirement for graduation. **

Course Description:
This internship program offers students the opportunity to apply for “for-credit” internship positions with the Austin U.S. Attorney’s Office. Information on the U.S. Attorney’s Office is available at: www.usdoj.gov/usao/txw/

Students earn 4 credits (pass/fail) over two semesters (2 credits per semester) – offered Fall and Spring every year. Students must commit to a full academic year of internship study. Students may NOT enroll in Fall 2018 Advanced Federal Criminal Prosecution seminar, co-taught by Professors Brown and Klein, during the same academic year as their U.S. Attorney Internship. Students may enroll in the AFCP seminar the academic year before or after their internship. Interns are encouraged to take Federal Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure, but neither is mandatory for the internship.

Students interested in the internship for the 2018-2019 academic year should stop by Prof. Susan Klein’s office at TNH 3.207. You may call her at (512) 232-1324, or send her an e-mail at sklein@law.utexas.edu.
Alternatively, you may call Prof. Brown at (512) 916-5858, or send him an e-mail at Anthony.w.brown@usdoj.gov. The application deadline for the next academic year (Fall 2018-Spring 2019) is February 16th, 2018.

Please send resume, cover letter, and transcripts (unofficial OK) to sklein@law.utexas.edu and to Anthony.w.brown@usdoj.gov.