

The background of the entire page is a photograph of the front entrance of Townes Hall. The building is a light-colored stone or concrete structure with classical architectural features. At the top, above the entrance, is a decorative pediment with the words "TOWNES HALL" carved into it. Below this is a balcony with a metal railing. The entrance itself is framed by two large columns and has a dark door. Two lantern-style light fixtures are mounted on the wall on either side of the door. To the left of the building, there are green trees and some pink flowers in a planter.
