

UT Opportunity Forum Presents: Expanding Fair Housing Opportunities for Low-Income Minority Families

Thursday, March 22

12 - 1:30 p.m.

UT School of Law
Sheffield Room

Join us for an engaging discussion with Elizabeth K. Julian, Executive Director of the Inclusive Communities Project, about housing segregation and innovative tools being used in the Dallas region to provide low income minority families with better access to good schools and healthy neighborhoods. Ms. Julian is also the former Deputy General Counsel for Civil Rights and Litigation, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. A local response panel will explore how these tools could be applied in the Austin region.

Elizabeth K. Julian
UT Law '73

Local Response Panel:

Betsy Spencer, Director, City of Austin, Neighborhood Housing and Community Development

Frank Fernandez, Executive Director, GreenDoors

Heather K. Way, Director, Community Development Clinic, UT School of Law

Lunch will be provided.

Seating is limited.

RSVP by March 19 to
rsidopulos@law.utexas.edu

For law school maps, parking and directions, visit

[http://www.utexas.edu/law/
about/maps/](http://www.utexas.edu/law/about/maps/).

CLE Credit Offered

Sponsored By:

William Wayne Justice
Center for Public Interest Law

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS SCHOOL OF LAW