Dear Mr Shattuck:

Re: Jennifer
Harbury/Commadante Everardo

Two members of the Lawyers Guild, Martin Sanchez and Martin Malcolm Goldstein, Medea Benjamin and myself will be in Guatemala City this Friday October the 28th.

Time is more important than protocol in this matter. Consequently through you I am asking the State Department to expedite <sup>an</sup> appointment for us with our Ambassador.

Also we are anxious to see both the Minister of Defense, General Enriquez and the President.
there before.

Señor Carpio was exceedingly helpful - ~~and~~ <sup>at</sup> that time he was the ombudsman for Human Rights. And I really don't know if he can exhibit the courage now that he did then.

We all know that the Guatemalan military does not exist in a vacuum. Some members are being trained in some Antonio - On the issue of Human Rights in Guatemala a change in the White House can barely be perceived as a change in policy toward the military. Thank you for your immediate attention

Sincerely
Frances T. Farenthold
