

PETITION TO TAKE FEWER THAN 10 OR MORE THAN 16 HOURS

According to the law school catalog, "...a student with credit for more than twenty semester hours may take no more than sixteen semester hours a semester. In rare situations the assistant dean for student affairs may, for good cause shown, permit a second- or third-year student to register for more than sixteen hours. Law students may take courses in other schools and colleges only with the express prior permission of the dean. Normally, a student may not take a course in another school or college, except an ROTC course, in addition to the maximum load in the law school.

During a long semester a minimum load of ten semester hours is required of all students with twenty semester hours of credit or more...A student may not take less than a minimum load without special permission of the dean."
