Students must apply for this course. For permission to register, write a short statement that includes what classification you are, what criminal law courses you’ve taken, any applicable criminal justice experience, and what your career goals are. Applications should be directed to Professor Klein at sklein@law.utexas.edu.