Legal Spanish for the Practicing Attorney

Professors Weimer and Trevino

This course requires prior approval from the instructors. The course will be open to students with an intermediate-to-advanced level of Spanish who wish to learn more about the use of Spanish in a legal context. Students should email the professors at chris.weimer@gmail.com and ctrevino@jw.com to provide a brief explanation regarding their level of proficiency in Spanish. Please include the course title in the subject line of the email.

The professors reserve the right to set up an interview with individual students to assess their Spanish proficiency and preparedness for the course.
