

Global Energy Transactions: Legal, Financial, and Scientific Perspectives

Spring Semester 2024

Professor Owen L. Anderson

Due to the “project team” nature of the class involving teams of law, business, and earth science students, enrollment is allowed by application only. If you are a law student (J.D. or L.L.M), please contact Professor Anderson. If you are a graduate student in the Jackson School, Cockrell School, or McCombs School, please contact Professor John Butler, butlerjc@mcombs.utexas.edu.

J.D. and L.L.M. students and students not affiliated with Jackson, Cockrell, or McCombs, please submit an email application to Professor Anderson, oanderson@law.utexas.edu, stating your name, whether you are a JD, LLM student, other graduate program, and mention any natural-resource related or environmental classes that you have taken or expect to take during your education at UT. Please provide a short statement (three or four sentences) why you are interested in taking this course. There are no prerequisites for this course. If you are approved by Professor Anderson, please forward your approval email to the Student Affairs Office Academic Services team: registration@law.utexas.edu. Students in Jackson, Cockrell, or McCombs should register at their school or contact Professor Butler.
