Dear Mr Tigan,

We been reading Mr. McCain with pleasure, but least when my own memory's stimed not only by the implacable Decca but by my Exeter classmate Pete Stephens - Did you meet his mother, Zella? When she appeared at school in babushka (sp?) & wooden beads we hailed her as Mother Bloss -
I like Mr. take on a subject I find it impossible to shut - hand - The negative "injustice" that arouses you to action is easier to deal with than the positively swarming "justice" for which we good guys fight - I thought a somewhat over-wrought re-use of justice overwhelmed McVersh -

Nice that you live in Annapolis whose most unlikely academic son was Bill Willians, the last century's only major US historian - Well, interesting times - I am a law junkie & so on. book delights though, the Breannon business after Dec. I'm at 2562 Outpost DR. LA 90068 - Finally, I would not have lunched with Buckley!
