

July 13, Weds

Dear Mr Tigar :

I'm sure all you need now to make the predicament complete is a mob of howling advocates asking that the Supreme Court be lynched. There is a Boalt mob howling angrily, but no treasonable plans so far. We heard there may be a possibility of trading justices, and candles have been lit petitioning the Werty for that to work out satisfactorily.

If not, many plan to express their disgust in letters and otherwise, unless you would rather not have a fuss.

anyway, we hope for a happy ending to your idyllic Washington stay. sincerely L. Thomas +
