MAHARISHI

Norman Rosen and Phil Schnippen showed distinct aptitude in the creation of the school motto, set with perfection in our school hall by Michael Felling's talent for design.

SPRING CABINET

The Spring Cabinet, presided over by Mike Tigar, spent a busy semester planning and carrying out school activities. The semester began with the signing of Hello-Day and the Howdy Hop during which old and new students had an opportunity to get acquainted. Semester pleasure continued with Sports nights, dances and other activities. Our sincere thanks to our unselfish, most capable leaders.

The Almsagon who brought the most honor to Bessado was Mike Tigor.

Mr. Rosold Reagan was our most celebrated guest at the Regents' Patriotic Assembly.

Seniors' energy is exhausted as they throw themselves heartily into the action of the Senior Field Day.

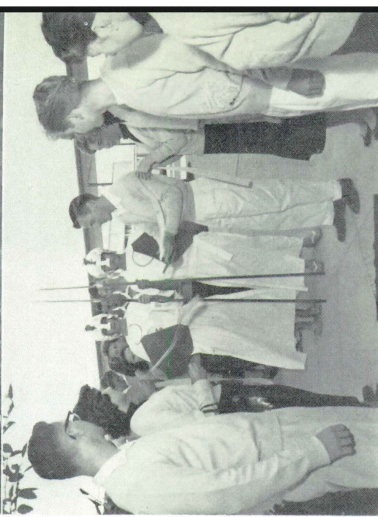

Watch out for that hard-boiled egg!!

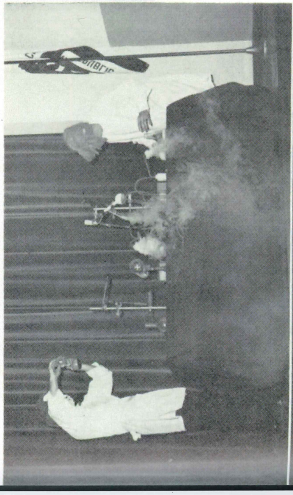

Three legs are better than two . . .

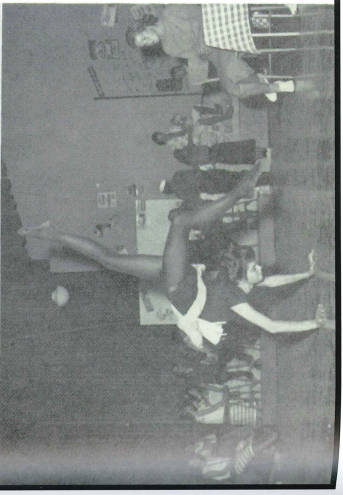

Your wish is our command, Oh Great Allegiant!

As the Allegians are initiated to the Senior Lawn, the Triennialists grin and bear it!

These frustrated Dalessi's prepared to give up their seats at the Allegian Sweater Assembly.

She's in a complete tumble over her Allegian Sweater Assembly.

KNIGHTS

Cred in modern armor of scholarship, leadership and citizenship, the Knights of Reseda fulfilled their one aim: to provide outstanding service and leadership for their sovereign, King Regent. These twentieth century Knights were on the spot throughout the semester with a helping hand extended to counselors in programming students, ushering at assemblies and football games, and joining the ladies to plan and sponsor the annual Christmas Formal. The place of honor at King Regent's Round Table is occupied by Sir Homer Ganzs and Sir Arthur Cole, sponsors of the Knights.

SQUIRES

Squires was the title of honor given to tenth and eleventh grade boys who maintained high standards of scholarship, leadership, and service. Reseda's boys' service organization was co-sponsored by Mr. Edward Moreno and Mr. Edward Dunn. The group served the school throughout the year but still found time for bowling, swimming parties, and other social events.

Conferred Honors,

SOUND CREW

These are the culprits who send the sweet voice of the oral bulletin into our classes and through our sleep-clouded minds each morning. The boys also handle the sound effects at all assemblies and sports events. Mr. T., Mr. Trierweiler, their advisor, our superenergized audio-visual coordinator, who also is in charge of our stage crew, is typical of our lazy faculty.

Commemorated

KGRCR is the call number of the Regent Radio Club. During the past semester, members of the Radio Club toured Reseda's campus with walkie-talkies, carrying out the school "teach-ins" for "secret powers". But plans have been made to establish this walkie-talkie service as a permanent part of Reseda High School's defense plan. With the help of Mr. Bruce Karr, sponsor of the club, members built a transmitter and set up a weekend schedule for its use. As a side line to the building of their transmitter, several club members joined a satellite tracking team in Chatsworth,

LATIN CLUB

Latin is important to any student who is considering a career in medicine or law and students at Reseda are very fortunate in having it as part of their curriculum. Reseda's Latin Club, sponsored by Mrs. Thelma Lindenberg, gave interested Latin students the chance to further enjoy their knowledge of Latin outside of class. This past year's activities included attendance at the Junior League Convention and a Latin Banquet where required dress was robes and tunics.

PROJECTION CREW

Informative educational films are certainly an aid to learning and without the skilled help of Projection Crew, the showing of these films would be impossible. Under the guidance of Mr. Trierweiler, members of this organization learn to operate projectors and at the same time serve their school.

Activities,

LETTERMEN

Boys of Reseda having lettered in any varsity sport and having passing grades in three solids and physical education are eligible for Lettermen's Club. Their purpose, which is to unite the varsity lettermen so that they can give school service and sponsor activities, is well achieved under the sponsorship of Mr. Quick and Mr. Lambert. Members bowl together monthly and sponsor the Letter Awards Presentation Banquet.

THESPIANS

The greatest honor that can be bestowed upon an aspiring actor is to be selected for membership in Thespians, Nationwide Honor Society for young actors. Regent Thespians, sponsored by Mr. David Farnley, participated in the annual Pasadena Playhouse One Act Play competition and the Thespians Regional Festival. During the summer months, Thespians from all over America will meet at a summer camp in the Blue Grass State to find new friends, renew old acquaintances, and improve their knowledge of the Arts.
