MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN
OF GRADUATE AND INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

I believe in this program! Not only is it my privilege to direct the program, I am also proud to be a graduate (LL.M. ‘07). This program opened a world of opportunities for me, and I am committed to doing the same for our students.

Let me tell you why I believe that Texas Law’s LL.M. program is such a wonderful place to take the next step toward achieving your dreams. First of all, Texas Law is one of the most highly ranked law schools in the United States (#14 in the US), while having one of the lowest tuitions for the value (most affordable LL.M. program in a top 14 law school).

The law school is housed on and part of the greater University of Texas at Austin Campus. Law students are able to be a part of this diverse and international community and all that has to offer—famous thinkers, artists and cultural programming, and NCAA sports. Students love living in Austin, one of the most rapidly growing cities in America for good reason. Austin is the live music capital of the world, has a rapidly expanding tech industry, and a food-lover’s paradise. (See feature about Austin that students are surprised about is how naturally beautiful Austin and its surroundings are. We are surrounded by rolling green hills, lakes, rivers, and natural springs. All sorts of gorgeous outdoor adventures await those who like to be outside—hiking, jogging, rafting or even merely swimming in a clear blue watering hole, or simply listening to some live music outside on one of many warm sunny days. We are a few hours north of the ocean, and a pleasant drive west to hiking in mountains springing up from the desert.

Not only do we offer a highly renowned program in a cool city, we care deeply about the happiness and successfulness of our students. The Graduate and International Programs team is committed to helping our students design a program that is made with the person in mind. We also know that many students will take advantage of the new Texas rules making it possible for some foreign LL.M. students to take the Texas Bar Exam. We have extensive programs designed to help our students pass the Texas bar exam, or the bar of their choice. We ensure that our LL.M. students have one of the most exciting, successful years of their lives by making sure our students are well supported and have had many opportunities facilitated by our team. We believe in the idea that Austin can change the world.

Yours sincerely,

Lauren Fielder, LL.M., J.D.
Dean of Graduate and International Programs

What starts here changes the world

TO APPLY, VISIT:
law.utexas.edu/master-of-laws/

LL.M. applications are processed through the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) LL.M. Applicant Services. LL.M. applications are available starting November 1 and due by March 1 for priority consideration.

CONTACT US
LL.M. Program
The University of Texas School of Law
727 East Dean Keeton St.
Austin, TX 78705
LLM@law.utexas.edu / (512) 232-1175
@TexasLawLLM / @TexasLawLLM

Lauren Fielder, LL.M., J.D.
Dean of Graduate and International Programs

Lauren Fielder, LL.M., J.D.
Dean of Graduate and International Programs

What starts here changes the world
MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DEAN
FOR GRADUATE & INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

I believe in this program! Not only is it my privilege to direct the program, I am also proud to be a graduate (LL.M. ’07). This program opened a world of opportunities for me, and I am committed to doing the same for our students.

Let me tell you why I believe that Texas Law’s LL.M. program is such a wonderful place to take the next step towards achieving your dreams. Texas Law is one of the most highly ranked law schools in the United States, while having one of the lowest tuition rates in the nation. (It’s one of the most affordable LL.M. programs in a top 20 law school).

The law school is located on and part of the campus of the University of Texas at Austin. Campus Law students are able to be a part of this diverse and international community and all that has to offer—famous thinkers, artists and cultural programming, and NCAA sports.

Student love living in Austin, one of the most rapidly growing cities in America for good reason. Austin is the live music capital of the world, has a rapidly expanding tech industry, and is a food-lovers paradise. One feature about Austin that students are surprised about is how naturally beautiful Austin is and its surroundings are. We are surrounded by rolling green hills, rivers, and natural springs. All sorts of gorgeous outdoor adventures await those who like to be outside—hiking, jogging, swimming in a clear blue watering hole, or simply listening to some live music outside on one of many warm sunny days.

Not only do we offer a highly renowned program in a cool city, we care deeply about the happiness and successfulness of our students. The Graduate & International Programs team is committed to helping our students design a program that is made with the person in mind. We also know that many students will take advantage of the new Texas rules making it possible for some foreign LL.M. students to take the Texas Bar Exam. We have extensive programs designed to help our students pass the Texas Bar Exam or the bar of their choice. We ensure that our LL.M. students have one of the most exciting, successful years of their lives by making sure that our students are well-supported and have many opportunities facilitated by our team, which enables us to help our students experience all that Austin has to offer. We would love to welcome you “home”!

Yours sincerely,

Lauren Fielder, J.D., LL.M. (’07), Ph.D.
Assistant Dean for Graduate & International Programs
lfielder@law.utexas.edu
The University of Texas School of Law is the best place to be a law student. We provide a top-tier academic program, great career options, and a commitment to high quality of life. Choose from six innovative degree options:

Global Energy, International Arbitration & Environmental Law
To address today’s energy challenges, the School of Law has created the LL.M. Concentration in Global Energy, International Arbitration, and Environmental Law to catalyze the interdisciplinary study of energy, including the structure of the energy industry, transactions, dispute resolution, and environmental science. We offer a number of innovative courses designed to prepare students in the energy sector. Our mission is to build up the next generation of energy leaders in Texas, the United States, and the world.

Human Rights & Comparative Constitutional Law
The Human Rights & Comparative Constitutional Law Concentration provides students with a comparative, critical, and focused view of the legal, institutional, and constitutional law. It offers students a comprehensive understanding of contemporary human rights practices, including constitutional law. In both domestic and international human rights settings. Each student will design an individual course of study tailored to their academic and career aspirations.

Cybersecurity Law
This concentration provides students with a sophisticated understanding of the legal, policy, and technical tools and architectures associated with cybersecurity. It is designed for the legal professional who wants to focus on cybersecurity issues. Featuring bespoke courses open only to LL.M. students, yet available to all master’s students, the concentration will train students to be leaders in the field of cybersecurity.

Latin American & International Law
This Latin American & International Law Concentration is one of the broadest and diverse programs in the United States and the world. This interdisciplinary program allows the student to learn from the social sciences and humanities across international and comparative perspectives in economic, political, and social contexts. Many faculty members are unparalleled in the breadth and depth of their engagement and achievements. The concentration brings together cutting-edge human rights, immigration, arbitration, and public international law. Students in this concentration often choose to pursue a LLM in Latin American Studies through the University’s Teresa Lozano Long Institute for Latin American Studies as well.

Business Law
This concentration is perfect for students interested in careers in business law. The Business Law Concentration provides students with a strong foundation in business law by taking courses in a variety of areas. Students can focus on a particular area of study or gain a broad foundation in U.S. law by taking courses in a variety of areas. Students take classes with some of the nation’s leading experts in business law.

Environmental Law
This concentration is for students interested in careers in environmental law. The Environmental Law Concentration provides students with a broad foundation in U.S. law by taking courses in a variety of areas. Students can focus on a particular area of study or gain a broad foundation in international law by taking courses in a variety of areas. Students take classes with some of the nation’s leading experts in business law.

U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers
This concentration is designed for foreign lawyers who want to practice in the United States. The U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers Concentration is designed to prepare foreign lawyers for global practice. In this program, students are fully integrated into Texas Law’s J.D. classes, where they will study side by side with American students being trained in the traditions of U.S. legal education. This concentration is a flexible program that provides students with a U.S. law degree so they can focus on a particular area of study or gain a broad foundation in U.S. law by taking courses in a variety of areas. Students take classes with some of the nation’s leading experts in business law.

The Concentration in Global Energy, International Arbitration, and Environmental Law is among the top 10 LL.M. Programs in the United States, according to U.S. News & World Report, and is among the best in the country. It is known as the Live Music Capital of the World for good reason. Austin’s entertainment districts are home to great choices when it comes to quality of life. We’re named Austin as one of “America’s Best Cities for Students,” and our trademark live music scene always takes a different spin than the expected. With more than 300 live music venues each year, Austin is a top destination for music lovers. The Texas Law School is home to the Texas Law Review and 10 specialty journals that publish in areas such as public international law. Student organizations at Texas Law run the gamut of areas of interest, from the Environmental Law Society and Human Rights Law Society to the Texas Bar Foundation and the Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund. Throughout the year, our Student Programs Office either organizes or co-organizes events, meetings, and holds academic support and advising sessions to enhance the student experience at Texas Law.

Clearwater Energy Ventures is the venture fund of the University of Texas at Austin. Through funding arrangements, Clearwater Energy Ventures funds the academic and research activities of the University of Texas at Austin. The university is a top 10 public research university in the United States and the largest public employer in Texas. The university is home to more than 50,000 students and has a diverse and vibrant community of more than 100,000 faculty, staff, and students. Clearwater Energy Ventures is the venture fund of the University of Texas at Austin. Through funding arrangements, Clearwater Energy Ventures funds the academic and research activities of the University of Texas at Austin. The university is a top 10 public research university in the United States and the largest public employer in Texas. The university is home to more than 50,000 students and has a diverse and vibrant community of more than 100,000 faculty, staff, and students. may design an individual course of study tailored to their interests, including courses in environmental law, human rights, and constitutional law. This cutting-edge concentration provides students with a robust, critical, and comparative foundation in both domestic and international law.

Latin American and International Law

The Concentration in Latin American and International Law is offered in cooperation with the University of Texas at Austin’s Latin American and Caribbean Studies (LLILAS) and the School of Law. Students interested in Latin American and the Caribbean, or in courses on Latin American, can complete the concentration by fulfilling a sufficient number of credits through LLILAS.

Business Law

The Business Law Concentration provides students with a strong foundation in the breadth of issues facing business organizations today. The concentration offers students the opportunity to take both basic and advanced courses and to take Texas Law’s expertise in corporate and business law. Sample course offerings include International Commercial Arbitration, International Financial Transactions, Negotiation, International Business Transactions, and International securities and State Arbitration.

U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers

The Concentration in U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers is a flexible program that provides students with a foundation in U.S. law, with an emphasis on American legal institutions. Students take both basic and advanced courses. This concentration works well for students from a non-common law background who intend to take either the Texas or New York Bar, as it provides for the needed curricular flexibility to enroll both in courses required by each bar and in courses that fit students’ academic and professional interests.

Business and Human Rights Law

The Concentration in Business and Human Rights Law is designed to prepare students to take on the myriad social and economic challenges that businesses face in areas ranging from corruption to corruption to conflict. The concentration offers students an interdisciplinary approach to addressing these issues through coursework in both business and human rights law.

International Law

The Concentration in International Law is designed to prepare students to take on the myriad social and economic challenges that businesses face in areas ranging from corruption to conflict. The concentration offers students an interdisciplinary approach to addressing these issues through coursework in both business and human rights law.

Comparative Law

The Concentration in Comparative Law is designed to prepare students to take on the myriad social and economic challenges that businesses face in areas ranging from corruption to conflict. The concentration offers students an interdisciplinary approach to addressing these issues through coursework in both business and human rights law.

Energy Law

The Concentration in Energy Law is designed to prepare students to take on the myriad social and economic challenges that businesses face in areas ranging from corruption to conflict. The concentration offers students an interdisciplinary approach to addressing these issues through coursework in both business and human rights law.

Texas Law has 16 clinics, 12 program centers, 11 journals, and 40 student organizations. We offer extensive clinical education opportunities, with 35 clinics covering a range of legal issues. These exciting and challenging courses allow students to prepare for real-world experiences working with clients while still in school.

This unique curriculum includes projects in business and human rights, and political and social entrepreneurship. Students can take courses on a broad range of international topics, from law and policy in Latin America to energy law and environmental law. The Concentration in Latin American and International Law is among the top 10 LL.M. programs across campus.

The Concentration in Global Energy, International Arbitration, and Environmental Law is among the top 10 LL.M. Programs for Energy Law.

Texas Law is the #14 law school in the U.S. (U.S. News & World Report).

Austin is the best place to live in the United States, according to U.S. News & World Report, and an absolute great choice area. It comes to quality of life, as known as the Live Music Capital of the World. City Limits Music Festival (October), and F1 Grand Prix (October). City Limits Music Festival (October), Austin Film Festival and Interactive Conferences & Festivals (March), Austin's largest annual events include SXSW Music, Film and Interactive. The Long Center offers world-class entertainment options from lively performances at the ZACH Theatre or the Long Center to galleries and studios on the Barton Creek Greenbelt. Or, head out to Hamilton Pool or Barton Springs for a quick dip in spectacular surroundings. From lively performances at the ACL, Theatre in the ACE and Austin’s club scene always takes a different spin than the expected. With more than 300 sunny days each year, Austinites appreciate the sunny days.

Texas is known for its food, with more than 407 live music venues. Whether it’s Tejano or BBQ, Austin has food for everyone. Austin is the best place to live in the United States, according to U.S. News & World Report, and an absolute great choice area. It comes to quality of life, as known as the Live Music Capital of the World. City Limits Music Festival (October), and F1 Grand Prix (October). City Limits Music Festival (October), Austin Film Festival and Interactive Conferences & Festivals (March), Austin's largest annual events include SXSW Music, Film and Interactive. The Long Center offers world-class entertainment options from lively performances at the ZACK Theatre or the Long Center to galleries and studios on the Barton Creek Greenbelt. Or, head out to Hamilton Pool or Barton Springs for a quick dip in spectacular surroundings. From lively performances at the ACL, Theatre in the ACE and Austin’s club scene always takes a different spin than the expected. With more than 300 sunny days each year, Austinites appreciate the sunny days.

Texas is known for its food, with more than 407 live music venues. Whether it’s Tejano or BBQ, Austin has food for everyone. Austin is the best place to live in the United States, according to U.S. News & World Report, and an absolute great choice area. It comes to quality of life, as known as the Live Music Capital of the World. City Limits Music Festival (October), and F1 Grand Prix (October). City Limits Music Festival (October), Austin Film Festival and Interactive Conferences & Festivals (March), Austin's largest annual events include SXSW Music, Film and Interactive. The Long Center offers world-class entertainment options from lively performances at the ZACK Theatre or the Long Center to galleries and studios on the Barton Creek Greenbelt. Or, head out to Hamilton Pool or Barton Springs for a quick dip in spectacular surroundings. From lively performances at the ACL, Theatre in the ACE and Austin’s club scene always takes a different spin than the expected. With more than 300 sunny days each year, Austinites appreciate the sunny days.
The University of Texas School of Law is the best place in the world to be a law student. We provide a top-tier programs, great career options, and a commitment to a high quality of life. Choose from five innovative degree options:

- Global Environmental Arbitration, and International Law
  This concentration is in cooperation with the University’s groundbreaking Kay Bailey Hutchison Center for Energy, Law, and Business. The Center’s mission is to provide a comprehensive understanding of contemporary human rights and constitutional law. It offers students a robust, critical, and comparative foundation in both domestic and international settings. The program provides students with an in-depth understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics.

- Latin American and International Law
  The Concentration in Latin American and International Law is offered in cooperation with the University’s Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies (LLILAS) and the University of Texas School for Translational Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.

- Human Rights and Comparative Constitutional Law
  This cutting-edge concentration provides students with a critical and comparative foundation in both human rights and constitutional law. It offers students a comprehensive understanding of contemporary human rights practices, including ways of constitutional law in both domestic and international settings. This concentration is offered in cooperation with the Law School’s Bernard and Audre Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice, which serves as a focal point of the University for critical interdisciplinal analysis and practice of human rights and social justice. Each student may design an individual course of study tailored to their academic and professional interests.

- U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers
  The Concentration in U.S. Law for Foreign Lawyers is a flexible program that provides students with a foundational education with the opportunity to take both basic and advanced courses in both legal and non-legal settings. This program is offered in cooperation with the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies (LLILAS). Sample course offerings include International Commercial Arbitration, International Petroleum Transactions, Negotiation, International Business Transactions, and International and State Arbitration.

- Texas Law is also home to some of the nation’s leading centers and programs in a range of education. The Law School is housed in the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies (LLILAS) the country’s preeminent center for the study of Latin America, and the Law School’s University of Texas School for Translational Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.

- Business Law
  The Business Law Concentration provides students with a strong foundation in the breadth of legal issues facing business organizations today. The concentration offers students the opportunity to take both basic and advanced courses in both Texas Law's reputation in corporate and business law. Sample course offerings include International Commercial Arbitration, International Petroleum Transactions, Negotiation, International Business Transactions, and International and State Arbitration.

- Spanish
  A concentration in Spanish is available for students interested in gaining a foundational understanding of the Spanish language and culture. The program offers courses in a variety of areas. Students take both basic and advanced courses. This concentration works very well for students from a non-Spanish legal background who intend to travel within the Texas or New York law firm. It provides for the needed curricular flexibility to enroll both in courses required by each bar and in courses that fit students’ academic and professional interests.

- Texas Law has 16 clinics, 16 programs and centers, 13 journals, and 44 student organizations.

You’ll enjoy a top-tier education opportunities, 15 clinics offering unique legal issues. These expanding and challenging courses allow students to gain meaningful real-world experience with clients and projects that are important to students’ academic and professional interests.

- Texas Law is also home to some of the nation’s leading centers and programs in a range of education. The Law School is housed in the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.

- Texas Law is also home to some of the nation’s leading centers and programs in a range of education. The Law School is housed in the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies (LLILAS). The Concentration in Latin American and International Law is offered in cooperation with the University’s Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies (LLILAS) and the University of Texas School for Translational Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.

- Texas Law is also home to some of the nation’s leading centers and programs in a range of education. The Law School is housed in the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.

- Texas Law is also home to some of the nation’s leading centers and programs in a range of education. The Law School is housed in the Texas Law South Institute of Latin America Studies. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the transnational legal environment in the Americas. This program is flexible, and students may focus on specific areas of study or take courses on a broad range of international topics. Students may also incorporate interdisciplinary study by completing 300-level courses and see a Certificate in Latin American Studies from LLILAS in addition to a LL.M. from the Law School by completing a sufficient number of courses.
MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN
OF GRADUATE AND INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

I believe in this program! Not only is it my privilege to direct the program, I am also proud to be a graduate (LL.M. ’07). This program opened a world of opportunities for me, and I am committed to doing the same for our students.

Let me tell you why I believe that Texas Law’s LL.M. program is such a wonderful place to take the next step toward achieving your dreams. First of all, Texas Law is one of the most highly ranked law schools in the United States (14th in the US), while having one of the lowest tuitions for the value ($1, most affordable LL.M. program in a top 14 law school).

The law school is located on and part of the greater University of Texas at Austin Campus. Law students are able to be a part of this diverse and international community and all that has to offer—famous thinkers, artists and cultural programming, and NCAA sports. Students love living in Austin, one of the most rapidly growing cities in America for good reason. Austin is the live music capital of the world, has a rapidly expanding tech industry, and a food-lover’s paradise. You’ll hear about Austin that students are surprised about is how naturally beautiful Austin and its surroundings are. We are surrounded by rolling green hills, blue, rivers, and natural springs. All sorts of gorgeous outdoor adventures await those who like to be outside—hiking, jogging,elanding in a clear blue springing up from the desert.

Not only do we offer a highly renowned program in a cool city, we care deeply about the happiness and success of our students. The Graduate and International Programs team is committed to helping our students design a program that is made with the person in mind. We also know that many students will take advantage of the new Texas rules making it possible for some foreign LL.M. students to take the Texas Bar Exam. We have extensive programs designed to help our students pass the Texas bar exam or the bar of their choice. We ensure that our LL.M. Students have one of the most exciting, successful years of their lives by making sure that our students are well supported and have had many opportunities facilitated by our team, which endeavors to help our students experience all that Austin has to offer. We would love to welcome you “home”!

Yours sincerely,

Lauren Fielder, LL.M., J.D.
Dean of Graduate and International Programs

TO APPLY, VISIT:
law.utexas.edu/master-of-laws/

LL.M. applications are processed through the Law School Admission Council (LSAC). LL.M. applications are available starting September 1 and due by March 1 for priority consideration.