CSO Study Break Public Service Stipend Program 2020 Recipient Agreement

Students who are selected to participate in the Study Break Public Service Stipend Program will receive a stipend of up to $4,000 to support 400 hours (10 weeks) of unpaid work with a government agency or a 501(c)(3) public interest organization, excluding judicial internships. The internship hours may be completed anytime between May 11-August 26, 2020.

As a condition of accepting this stipend from The University of Texas School of Law (“Law School”), I agree to the following:

- I will work at _____, the sponsoring organization (“Sponsor”) identified in my Study Break Public Service Stipend Program (“Program”) application, and I will complete the type of work described in my application.
- I am not receiving academic credit for the internship stated with the above Sponsor.
- I have fully disclosed if I am receiving another fellowship, scholarship and/or stipend for this position.
- I acknowledge that participating in this Program does not make me an independent contractor or employee of the Law School, and that I am responsible for any tax consequences connected to my receipt of this stipend.
- I will complete 400 hours of work over 10 weeks for Sponsor before August 26, 2020.
- I will provide to the Law School a statement signed by my supervising attorney confirming that I have completed the internship.
- I agree to update the Texas Law Career Services Office about any changes related to my eligibility for this Program.
